ANOTHER ECHO.

Former Senator William E. Chandler, of New Hampshire, has written a letter to Sinator Thomas S. Martin urglog him and his colleagues to support the movement for the return of the Virginia portion of the District of Columbia to become part of Washington, Mr.

Chandler says: "This letter takes the form of an appeal to Virginians. It is sincere. I first saw the Capital City in 1855, coming north from Richmond. It looted insignificant. Outside a few public buildings it was insignificant, physically. A city of magnificent distances, with bardly one fine residence; no wonder that 30 years before that day the Virginia portion across the Potomac seemed likely never to be wanted as a useful part of the capital. Yet what change has come, which we all now clearly see. Washington wants its early portion of Virginia's soil. The nation wants it as a part of Washington's municipality. Virginia loses nothing by the restoration, but makes a great gain. She will still surround the soil, see it developed and beautified as the nation's splendid metropolis, born from Virginia's substance and shining as Virginia's star. If this domain had never been a part of Washington, tu: the astion now wanted it to be added to Washington, would not Virginia j yfully give it? Much more than this it would give. So I entreat Virginiaus with one accord to come forward and make to the nation a gift which will still remain, in a high sense, a bright jewel in the crown of the Old Dominiou.'

If former Sanator Chandler regards his time as valuable he had better devote it to something else. Sending letters to Senator Martin asking his aid in any movement to further despoil Virginia of her territory will meet with about as much success as a proposition to Eogland to relinquish Gibraltar. A few months ago Senator Bailey at a banquet to this city said : "Tom Martin talks less and works more than any man in the Senate, If the retrocession plan ever reaches that body he will place the lid upon it so tight that it will become hermetically sealed. It Washington can't get slong without Alexandris, let Alexandria aunex Washington."

> SNAKE LOOSE IN SOHOOL. One of the boy pupils of Washington school carried a blacksnake as a playcape, and after raising the lid of the desk dropped upon the floor. Most of be youngsters when they saw the reptile stood either on their chairs or desks. The snake made tracks for the register and passing through the bars went into the cellar where it now remains. The lady teacher showed less excitement at the incident than her scholars.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Miss Emms Fornshill took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of her sister, 216 north Fairfax street. Rev. J. R. Savier, pastor of the Second Presbyterisn Church, conducted the services, and the interment was in the Methodist Protestant cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Fred. W. Athey, B. H. Hancock, Nelson Cradlin, Thomas Myers, James Upton and A. B. Bondurant.

ACOUSED DISMISSED.

David White, colored, was before the Police Ocurt this morning charged with assaulting Willaim Coleman, colored, former candidate for the legislature and other representative positions. According to Coleman's testimony he was forcibly ejected by White from his house, White saying that he had "talked that White attempted to extract one of his eyes first by gouging and then with a knife. The charges were not sustained and White was dismissed.

A PIANO WITHOUT MONEY. On the first page of the Gazette will be found the announcement of one of the most extraordinary plano propositions ever placed before the people of Alexandria, The well-known firm of Hecht & Company, 513-515-517 Seventh street. Washington, state that they will place grade Comstock pianos, and upon presentation of a copy of their advertisement absolutely no cash will be required and $10 will be allowed on the price of the piano. It can be paid for then on terms as low as $1 weekly.

The success of the Hect firm in the distribution of planos has been phenomengl, the volume of business far surpassing that of of many exclusive piano stores. As they handle only high-class and dependable instruments, which are fully guaranteed, complete satis-

sent by the well known house. The Cometack pisno is one of the best medium priced planos in the world -- a beautiful instrument and one that will last a lifetime. The terms upon which it can be bought place it within the resources of every family to have one of these superb pianos. There was a decided frost in this city and vicinity last night, but not en ush to damage vegetation, YESTERDAY.

Toe weather yesterday was clear and cool, indeed more like an October than a May day. The churches were all well attended and save at the Bapt'st Church where Revs. R. L. Motley and A. J. Moncrief, of North Carolina, preached in the morning and evening respectively, in pulpits of the other churches were occupied by the resident slergy.

MT. VERNON REGENTS.

The ladies of the board of regents of Mount Vernon, now holding their annual meeting at Mount Vernon, yesterday altended services at Pohick Church, where services were held by the rector, Rev. Everard Meade, assisted by the former rector, Rev. S. A. Wallis. The services were largely attended.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE KING. The official programme for the removal of the body of the late King Edward from Buckingham Palace to Westminister Hall, London, on next Tu-sday was issued last night. It shows that the removal will be attended by a military Dundonald and Commander Cunning spectacle only less impressive and imposing than the funeral itself. Following the casket, drawn on a gun carriage, will walk King George, the royal princes and all the kings and princely greats, together with the members of the late king's household, the lords and grooms to waiting, court digenough."The complainant further alleged nitaries, naval officers and the queen mother's household. Then will come a procession of pine carriages, with the queen mother and all the imperial and royal ladies.

Upon arrival at Was minister Hall the late king's company of the Grenadier Guards, who will have charge of the casket throughout the ceremony, will place the body upon the catafa'que for lying in state. All the regalia being placed upon the casket, the Archbishop of Cantertury will then conduct a solemn service in the pressuce of the royal mourners, after which the public lying in state will begin.

The details of Friday's ceremony are still incomplete, but it has been decided that sailors will draw the gun carriage with the coffin at Windsor, where the last solemn service will be held.

Mysterious Killing.

circums'ances surrounding the killing of a young immigrant girl whose terribly mangled body was found jammed between ties of the Sixth Avenue Elevated Railway today. Edward's Body Viewed. Landon, May 16 .- The fact that tomorrow will witness the rameval of the oody of the late king from the throne in Buckingham Palace to Westminister Hall cast a spail of gloom over the entire city. The royal household and the various diplomatic corps had a private view today of the body of Edward as it lay in the coffin on a catafalque in the throne room. The scene was made pathetic by the grief of many of the old mployes of the late king, who wept hysterically. The queen mother was greatly moved by the affection displayed by these old servitors, and said that their grief, while touching, was one of I greatest solaces she has frund in her own sorrow. Thousands of troops strived in Lizion today and are being quartered in Hyde, Kensington, Regert and Batter. sea Parks. By tomorrow there will be 30,000 troops in the city, who will line the route of the procession from Backinghan Palace to Westminister Hall and Friday will perform a like service in the laneral procession from Westminister

Hall to Paddington station. Prices for eests along the route of the foneral procession are miunting tou precedented figures. One small merchant today sold his -tore room for next Friday for $5,000. Reckless bidding by rich Americans has helped to up the prices of reats. It is estimated that there will be $500,000 paid for seats along the route from Westminister Hall to Paddington station. London, May 16 .- Theodore Roosevelt, bearing his new title of American ambassador to the funeral of King Edward, arrived at the Victoria s'arion at 7:30 this morning and was officially received by both the municipality and the government. King George showed his interest in Roosevelt by sending Lord Dundonald to Queenaboreugh to greet Roosevelt when he landed from the steamer Mecklenburg at 6 o'clock this morning, and by having the royal carriage at the Victoria stat'on to convey Mr. Roosevelt and his family to Dorchester House, the home of Ambassador Reid, where they will remain while in London. Mr. Roosevelt viewed the body of the dead king today, as it lay in the throne room of Buckingham Palace, and went from the palace to Marlborough House where Ambassador Reid formally presented him to King George. The meeting between Roosevelt and King George was brief but cordial. The king expressed his pleasure at the appointment of Mr. Roosevelt as envoy to his father' (operal. King George today appointed Lord hame Graham to have charge of Boose vell's entertainment in London and to serve as a permanent suite for him. This is an unusual mark of distinction.

Wreaking Vengeauce on Rebels. Balgrade, May 16 -The rebellion parts of Albania are described as "smoking wildernesses" in today's dispatches from the scenes of the fighting bet reen the rebels and Turkish troops. The troops now are in complete control and are wreaking terrible vengeacce on the Albanians. Thousands of people from the burned villages are shelterless and starving and are being hunted down and rutalessly slain by the troops. There has been no opportuoity to bury the bodies of those killed in the fighting and of the bundreds who have since died through lack of attention to their wounds. In places the country-side is strewn with corpses. The soldiers are determined to make a "horrible example" of the late uprising and for this reason are committing atrocities that have never before been equalled.

Comet Causes Suicide. Philade pia, Pe., Mag 16 -Terror'z by the sight of Halley's comet Virgin Matthews, a pissenger on the steamer Admiral Schley, of the United Fruit investigating a number of mysterious Company, which arrived here today, leaped overboard while that vessel was steaming up the A lantic coast. The boats were lowered, but the man's body did not come to the surface. When the comet appeared on the horizon Captain Mader called all the passengers on deck. Mathews grew nervous and shook with terror. A few minutes later he climbed over the ship's rail and threw himself icto the sen. Mathews was a Virginian and booked passage from Baltimore.
